This very special 2011 wall calendar, full of playful puppies and sayings of inspiration and hope, is dedicated to the children and families who face the challenges of Niemann-Pick Disease (NPD). Your purchase of this calendar will help give hope to families affected by NPD as it raises funding for essential research into treatments and a cure.

As we turn the pages each month, we are reminded that we are in a race against time to find treatments and a cure for all children and adults with NPD. For more information about Niemann-Pick Disease, please visit the National Niemann-Pick Disease Foundation's Web site at: www.nnpdf.org.
